“ Those of us a Kirk of Our Savior Presbyterian Church have only fond memories of Don. He was an active member of the Kirk for a long time, and sang in the choir until Alzheimer's took that joy from him. My personal memories are of he and his wife being involved in Boy Scouts with my parents and all of their boys. Don has been and will be missed by all here at the Kirk. Sent from Jenny (Hesselgrave) Root.

“ So sorry to hear of Donnies passing. I remember the times spent with Auntie Maud and Uncle Wilfred when we had family visits in Ontario. Donnie would have been in his late teens at that time. Ironically I was reminising just this past week about those times. Please accept our families condolences. Sharon Palloway (Kitchen) Laurel Laking (Kitchen)

“ I grew up with Mr. Rock as my "grandpa" lived next door my whole life ,although he wasn't my blood he was still a huge part in my life making sure that I made it to and from school everyday listening to jazz music on full blast :) it will be hard knowing that he's not just next door it'll take a lot of getting use to not seeing him when u look out the window! Love u guys all very much!
