“ My memories of Don Wallace are of a neighbor, whom i looked up too as a kid and as a teenager. My family loved Don and Jean who treated my parents with respect. I looked up to him as a Korean war hero and a respected Lincoln Park Police Officer. Rest in Peace Don.

Really going to miss seeing you, and making you some home cooked meals, What a great man, we became friends when we would chat, when he came into Holiday Market, I work in the Deli, and he would talk about his wife, and how she was in a nursing home, and he would go everyday for breakfast, lunch, and dinner to eat with her, he had such a beautiful devotion to her, I love ya Don, really going to miss you 😭😭

Bruce, I acquired your father's book several years ago, but only about a month ago I took it out and read it from cover to cover. My Lincoln Park life paralleled your father's - right down to our ages. I lived in the Raupp school neighborhood. So this morning I decided to do a search of your father. Sadly, I now realize he has passed. I wanted to talk to him and share memories. But now it is too late. You must be proud to be his son. God bless you! Richard Kohs
