“ How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

Well, the Bible makes the promise: “Your dead ones Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. Visit www.jw.org “ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Marilyn will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Marilyn again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Jerry, I was shocked and saddened on seeing Marilyn's obituary in the newspaper. I don't need to tell you what a wonderful woman she was. So hard to speak of her in the past tense. Our few years together in the Pre-School Religion program are unforgettable to me. She was a rock. I am truly sorry for your loss, and for the loss of your children and grandchildren. God's mercy and peace be upon you. Sincerely, Rita Agabashian

“ It is the hardest thing in all the world to lose a mom. A faithful loving person who has cared for everyone. We thank God at times like this for Jesus Christ for because of what he did on the cross our separation from our loved ones is not permanent but only temporary. May God Bless and keep all of you in his loving care.

“ To my dear friend, Sue, your father, sister, brothers and the entire Friske family.....it is always difficult to find the words to express sympathy to you in the loss of someone so dear to you.....truth is, no matter what feeble words we try to say can ever fill the void or take away the pain you are feeling for the loss of such a loving and caring lady. But give all your hurt to Christ Jesus and allow him to heal your grief. Jesus welcomes your mom to paradise.....his good and faithful servant. I am so glad to have met your mom. God Bless all of you.....sincere prayers to you.

“ To Gerry & The Entire Friske Family - We were so sorry to hear about your loss. As a neighbor across the street, we will truly miss her waves & smiles pulling out of the driveway all of the time. She was a very kind and caring neighbor who always took that extra minute when she had the chance to talk to Marissa. Thank you Marilyn and Gerry for your kindness to our family!

“ Mr. Friske, I'm sure you won't remember me. I worked at Hudson's Fairlane store, 30 years ago and your wife, and often you also bought the "uLTIMA" cosmetics that I sold at that time. She was such a warm and friendly lady and we would talk for a while every time. You had worked with my husband at Ford also.. I recognized her name and picture immediately. I am very sorry for your loss. She was a lovely lady.
