“ Our deepest condolences to the family of Donna Lee Randolph for the passing of a wonderful mother, grand mother, aunt and friend. Donna, Diana and Debbie all grew up together on the same street and continued there friendship for over 55 yrs. she will truly be missed but knowing that her suffering and pain has come to an end only comforts us to know she's in a much better place. My her memories and spirit fill us with the faith that we shouldn't take life for granted until we meet once more God keep her in his loving embrace. Always our friend Timothy a and Deborah Messer
