“ Please accept our deepest condolences for the loss of your Mom. I will always cherish the many of great memories growing up and camping with Aunt Donnie and Uncle Bob. I still laugh at the practical jokes Uncle Bob and my Dad would play. Some of the best: 1976 phone on a tree gag at Bruin Lake, your Dad doing cartwheels out of the trailer without spilling a drop of beer and the mysterious photos of hubcaps and beer bottles that used up all the film... How did our Mom's put up with all of their hijinks for so long? :) I always enjoyed getting a chance to see her when we came back to Michigan. May the thought of her no longer suffering and the thought of her reunited with Uncle Bob comfort you in this difficult time. Love always, Rick and Jennifer Sherman

Thanks a bunch for the laugh. I also remember those times fondly. They would stir up some shit!
