“ Always a classy lady who loved the Lord, her husband and family. That was always very apparent. She was such a lovely example to a young Christian woman , as I was when I first met her. She raised godly children , who in turn married godly people. She had a very dry sense of humor that added to her charm. We send our condolences and prayers to the family. We will miss this lovely lady. Mike and Debbie Burke

“ I always thought of Aunt Doris Jean as a sweet and gentle person, with a quiet sense of humor. When we were kids and the family drew names for the Christmas Eve gift exchange, I was glad if she drew me. She had great taste, was generous and gave gifts that made little girls happy. When I was confirmed I remember having a special day with all my aunts and uncles & cousins. Uncle Evert & Aunt Helen took me for a ride in their pink Edsel, and Uncle Bob & Aunt DJ gave me a purse that I loved, it looked like a picnic basket. What a special day, I felt like Cinderella! I always loved and looked forward to being with my aunts, uncles and cousins. I'm grateful for the heritage and legacy passed down to us from grandparents, parents & family. Aunt DJ was part of that, what a blessing, she will be missed.

*With love & sympathy,
Jean Lindman-Kahle*
