“ I will miss you so much Aunt Doris, but whenever I think of you I know it will bring a smile to my face. We had some great memories together. I loved you then, now & always will. Hec, I knew you longer than I did my own parents!. I'm happy you are now with your beloved husband (Uncle Joe) & my sweet mother & father in laws (Betty & Stosh). But most importantly, we have lost this families Martriarch. You knew the answer to any family questions, you shared so much history about this family. Thank You Aunt Doris. Hopefully you passed this info to Joyce or she's in BIG trouble. lol Thank you for coming into my life. All my love, Sue Now it's time for the 4 of you to laugh, polka & have a shot and a beer.

“ Loved this lady. Her sense of humor and sassiness always got me laughing. I am sure she will not mind if I say that we would share a glass of champagne now and then. I will miss her very much. RIP my dear friend.
