

Dorothy E. Bloom

March 28, 1922 - February 1, 2018

Bloom, Dorothy E., February 1, 2018 age 95 of Plymouth. Loving wife of the late Howard. Loving mother of Mary Ellen (Milton Lum) Bloom, Jim (Linda) Bloom, and Ken (Mary Beth) Bloom. Proud grandmother of Adam, Joshua, Jake, Ben, and Ryan.

Dorothy Bloom was born and raised on the east side of Detroit. She graduated from Denby High School in 1940 and got her first job working at the Detroit Edison Company. She was passionate about getting a college education and attended Wayne State University on a part-time basis while working. Dorothy married her late husband Howard Bloom in 1948 and they moved to Plymouth. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Education from Wayne State and taught school for 30 years in Dearborn and Livonia. She continued her education and eventually earned two Master's Degrees from Eastern Michigan University.

Mrs. Bloom taught in the Dearborn School System for 30 years. Dorothy was an active member of the Matthaei Botanical Gardens. She was a founding member of the Village Herb Associates at Greenfield Village, and the Learning Assistance Center at Schoolcraft College. She also volunteered at the Plymouth Historical Museum. Dorothy and her husband were both tireless volunteers and spent their retirement years contributing to their communities. Dorothy loved music and was an accomplished piano player, especially at playing "stride piano" style. She enjoyed telling stories about how much fun it was to play with the Navy dance band at the first USO parties in Detroit in
