“ I'm truly Blessed to have known Dorothy Clark. My sincere condolences to the Clark family on the loss of Mom. David, Lynn, and Barbara your in my thoughts and prayers. I'm sorry I can't make it up north for services. Dorothy Clark was one of my precious Brody Street Moms so many memories; from church, simple rides to school, Edison lake, vacations, fish fry's, the memories are endless the Brody Street Bunch was quite in fact a microcosm of all our lives Dorothy Clark was a remarkable lady who helped to shape and fulfilled many dreams of those she touched thank you Mom Dorothy. May the road rise meet you God Bless Love you Frank Kastl

“ Lynn Hourigan is my aunt. I have never met her mother Dorothy and I don't see my aunt Lynn often although the times I have shared with aunt Lynn have always been excellent. Aunt Lynn has always been thoughtful of everyone else, intelligent to speak to, and a genuinely good person. I'm sure a lot of these good personality traits were passed down from her mom. I'm sorry to the Clark family for your loss. Love you, aunt Lynn!
