“ My Family and I would like to express our condolences to the Family. Remember Jesus words at John 5:28, 29 ... "all those in the Memorial Tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Dorothy will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Dorothy again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Dorothy seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Bob, Kathleen, Greg and your families, I have been so blessed to have gotten to know your mom over the past one and a half years. It has been wonderful working with all of you to help your mom maintain her independence and fight the many battles she has faced with courage and perseverance. You have all done a wonderful job of supporting her. She will be remembered, she loved you all and was so very proud of each of you! Crystal

“ Dear Bob and Family, My heartfelt sympathy on the physical loss of your mother; and know that in spirit you will never be without her as she is embraced by LOVE. Nothing prepares us for the actual experience of the loss of those we love. Be gentle with yourself and each other. Know that your mom and all of you are held in heart and prayer. With empathy, Helen,r.c.
