“ My husband and I have known Doug since elementary school. We grew up just blocks apart. Doug was a very good person, he was outgoing and smart he was one of a kind. I will remember Doug's smile.

“ I am so sad you're gone,DJ. Childhood memories have swirled in my mind constantly since I heard of your passing. I've cried and I've smiled. Dressing you up like Baba, playing basketball with our dads, you letting me play Voltron, and so many laughs our families had at gatherings. Memories that will be forever cherished. We just were texting last week about going to see the movie, Scary Stories, because it was a book that we read together when we were kids. My heart hurts, but I know you are at peace. I love you, cousin. Please have you and Baba watch over my dad. Love, Kimmy

“ RIP Doug... you were a great friend to my brother! I remember when you'd call the house my dad would say "Josh, it's Doug with the man voice". I can still hear your voice today even though I haven't seen you for years. You're at peace now.... praying you're family will be at peace knowing you're now their guardian angel. ❤️ Rest easy...
