“ We had such great times when we all got married. Played cards all night and the guys got up and went to work. Fred always got in trouble from the antics we would pull. Poor Fred. Do you remember the Sears Floor Scrubber? Your furniture for sale? The sign on your mammoth front lawn Xmas Tree that stood over 30ft high? Who was it now that placed that "FOR SALE" sign on that huge tree? Hmm. Remember all the Thanksgivings we had together..Baking the turkey and pies while the guys watched the Lions Game. Walking across Windsor Street in shorts and flip flops in 30 degrees, snowy weather with a cigarette in one hand and coffee in the other...and Fred would just shake his head....Didn't we have fun! Remember our trips to the Sand Dunes and Mackinac Island. Was that you that fell over the boat? Didn't we have fun! Remember my pool and your Fish Pond? You and Fred were in our pool more than we were...Hmm. LOL Remember all the Birthday Parties our little girls attended. I still have the pictures. Our neighbors who shook their heads at us. LOL LOL Didn't we all have fun? Then we moved to Texas. What precious memories.... You can't take them away from us. Remember the night of the fire. Fred was trying to put it out with a water filled dixie cup. LOL Fred, you may be gone but you will never be forgotten.

“ Marcia, Linda and Bryan ~ My heart goes out to you all. I remember how friendly Fred was to all of us kids. He always made us feel welcome in your home, which alot of parents of teenagers didn't always do. Linda ~ I've always remembered us doing his laundry when your mom was in the hospital and ironing his dress shirts for work. He was such a loving dad, never hesitated to show his love for you in front of your friends. Take care and you are in our thoughts and prayers ~ Becky and Jeff
