“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Dwayne will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Dwayne again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Dwayne seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ To the Bates Famiy: My deepest condolences to you. I cant imagine the pain your family is going through. I didnt know Mr. Bates but by reading his obituary he was truly loved. God holds out a wonderful prospect of seeing Dwayne again in perfect health. That prospect is held at Revelation 21:3,4.My prayers will be with your family and I hope those scriptures bring comfort.

“ When I think of Dwayne I think of a "GREAT MAN"! A man who treated me as one of his own children, although I am only truly his daughters sister, but you would of NEVER known that! Wayne in every sense of the word is my FATHER too, he was more of a father figure in my life then my own biological father and there are absolutely NO words to express how truly truly truly he IS LOVED and how much he will be MISSED!!!, Love Tyona.
