“ The thing I remember most about Earl was that he loved animals. He had two dogs that he absolutely cherished. He was a good guy. I was in his life for a brief time in late 2023 and early 2024 when I worked for a home care agency. I would go to Earl's home and do housecleaning for a few hours.

“ I remember the 1st day I met Earl was around 1972 at the bus stop There was a crowd of kids I asked what's in the shoe box he opened the lid showed me A model of a Honda 70 I said that's cool I have a mini bike. So we sat together on the Bus he told me they moved Here from Taylor and I told him we moved Here from Detroit. We didn't see each other that day at school he was a ninth grader and I was an eighth grade. We. A shared a seat on the way home that day on the bus he Said we should ride together That was the 1st day of each of us being each other's ride or die. Over 50 years ago rest in peace my best buddy
