“ Dear Kelley and family. Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your lives for the past nine months. Thank you for sharing your joys, sorrows, pains, victories, etc. with us. During this time, many relationships were renewed with Christ while many who never knew Him, gave their lives to Him. What a testimony for you and Ed!

Ed will be missed. However, I know he's in a better place where there is no more pain or sorrow. Thank God that he has finally met his Savior!

I love you Kelley and I will continue to pray for you and your family. Do not hesitate to call if there's anything I can do for you.

“ Our sincere condolences from your 8A leukemia friends across the hall. No one will understand what we all went through ... and what a shame to end both lives so soon. We are so sorry for your family.

“ Dearest Kelley and family,
I have been following Ed's brave fight since noticing his name on Dr. Tally's sign this past winter, I believe it was between Thanksgiving and Christmas. I live in Allen Park. I have found so much strength and inspiration from visiting your website. Ed has left a wonderful legacy of faith, love and inspiration. You Kelley have been a rock through all of this, although I know you would credit this to our Savior. You and Ed have touched more people than you can even comprehend.
I was driving down Allen rd today and realized I had not visited your website since last Thursday I saw Dr. Tally's sign which reads Ed Horn is with our Lord. I had to pull over for a few minutes to absorb the impact of this news.
Gods Blessings to you and all of your family at this time.

“ To Edward whose wonderful soul now walks elsewhere with God - Thank you for modeling how to move on in courage, with faith and dignity - Blessings always.

To the Family: Even in the midst of grief, heartache and sorrow, you have experienced through Edward the best of the best. My prayers are with you.

*Love and Peace,
Reverend A*

“ Our hearts have been with you over the past long hours. I wish we could fly out to show our support at Ed's memorial service, but know that we will be thinking of you and praying for you, as will the body of believers at our church.

May you feel His everlasting arms holding you tightly.

“ Kelley, Aidan and Kya you are blessed by God's everlasting love. Through your example so many have been touched. God has used your family as examples of true followers of Christ Jesus! Because of your family and the emense faith your family has, so many have accepted His righteousness.

1 Peter 2:21

"To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps."

Exodus 15:2

"The Lord is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him."

In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.
