“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Eddie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Eddie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Eddie seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ December 16, 2010 To Sister Sallie Crumble and Entire Family on the passing of Eddie Mae Ware: ‘God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46:1 We the Pastor, Officers and Members of the Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church express our love, our prayers and deepest sympathy in the passing of your sister. We understand and know that these are trying times for those of us who are left behind. Therefore, we commend you to Jesus who is able to comfort and keep you. He will never leave you nor forsake you, for He is the good shepherd and the good Shepherd cares for His sheep. Put yourself in the Masters hand and rest assured He will help you to stand. This God Will Give You He will give you strength and courage when failure comes your way He is your inspiration to face each newborn day He comforts and sustains you when efforts seem in vain He is your consolation in times of grief and pain He is a friend when others refuse to lend an ear And in your hour of loneliness He is always near He never will forsake you. He is your dearest friend We are praying for you, May God bless you and give you strength. Prayerfully submitted, Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church Pastor Danny Hubbard, Undershepherd Sister Sher A. Garnett, Assistant Church Clerk
