“ He is more than just a man. He put his life on the line serving front line on D-Day in WWII for our freedoms. He is more than just a war hero. He would put God first in his life and taught us how thankful we should be. He is more than just a teacher. He raised a wonderful, blessed family that now gets passed down from generation to generations. He is more than just a man, a teacher or a war hero. He is an Angel. Our DziaDzia! We love you! You will be greatly missed, but NEVER forgotten. We look forward to seeing you in heaven one day, so you can tell us another great story!

*Lots of love,
Rick, Kelly, Kaylee, Kristina, Nicholas, and Anthony*

Kelly Persichetti - January 30, 2018 at 08:55 PM

“ Dearest Eddie, I have known you since I was 14 years old. You would come to Logan School and watch me play ball. Shortly after we became neighbors and the rest is history. We celebrated 70 years of marriage this past November, and now that you are gone I will miss you until we see each other again.
