“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Edward will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Edward again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Edward seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

My fellow Wolverine fan , BHS graduate and friend, wonderful memories of you will be etched in brains and felt in our hearts forever! "God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be. “ ACCOMPLISHMENTS In 1995 Eddie was kind enough to remodel the kitchen in my house in Northville. It was a daunting task but Eddie approached it with his usual light spirit. He would come over early on Saturday mornings toting his tools and a case of 50's music. We would listen to Roy Orbison or The Dominoes while Eddie taught me how to hang dry wall and cut floor moldings. He was patient and never lost his temper with my clumsy construction skills, a good teacher. At the end of the work-day, Eddie would crack-open a Budweiser and we would sit on the floor and admire the accomplishments of the day. Nine months later, we were able to crack-open a Budweiser, sit on a counter-stool and admire the overall accomplishment. Well Constructed and Beautiful. I imagine this is what Eddie is doing now. Sitting back and admiring the accomplishments of his life: A loving and loyal wife, two successful and devoted children, five lovely grandchildren and the creation of countless fond memories in friends and family. Well Constructed and Beautiful. Thank you Eddie. With Love and Fond Memories, Evelyn Butler

“ I am sorry about the loss of a good father/ husband and my cool uncle. He was such a memorable man. I wish I could have spent more time with him but the time spent with him I won't forget.... like him singing, playing the sax, Indy500, drinking budweisers and let's not forget Michigan football and the blue coolers..also playing shuffle board at Sheehans. Eddie was a great man and will never be forgotten.

“ To say Ed will be missed is an understatement of the highest order. Ed was a man who added nothing but goodness and joy to the lives of all who had the priveledge and honor to know him. Truly a man to emulate in every regard. A gentleman, a friend, a father and grandfather, a husband, a buddy, a pal and a man who very few can measure up to. The genuinely good nature of Ed Fischer is hard to describe, but if you knew him, you know what I mean. The void he left can never be filled, but it can be lessened with the memories and the stories you keep in your heart. Gob bless Ed Fischer, he was one in a million!

“ When people say that Ed is in a better place I can't help but get a little upset. His better place was with Nancy living a good life at the villages. I will miss him dearly. Carol

“ Eddie, I remember that Howard and I met you on your boat with Linda and Tom many years ago. You were so much fun to be around and Howard loved to talk to you. You always had a smile on your face and a twinkle in you eye. My thoughts and prayers are with you family. Blessed are they that mourn: For they shall be comforted. Matthew 5:4

“ Such a dear brother to us -- his will always be remembered as the best husband/ father/ grandfather/brother/friend anyone could hope to ever have. .. he brought years of wisdom, happiness and enrichment to so many lives. So many wonderful memories to hang onto to. As the head of the Fischer family, he leaves a huge hole in our lives and our hearts and his place at Indy will forever be retired - - because no one will ever ever be able to fill it! We love him dearly and always will and his entire family -- the best anyone could hope to have. Thank you Eddie for being such a wonderful brother to us -- we'll miss you always.... xoxoxoxo

“ To all of the Fischer family, Mom just called to tell me - I am so sorry for your loss. I just remember Eddie as always being so funny - I guess most of my memories are from the Camp Dearborn reunions or family parties. What a special man! So sorry I will be unable to see you all - I'm kind of snowed in up here in Huron county. Love to you all!
