“ So sorry to all of the Lemon family. Thanks cousin Ed for getting me interested in guitar playing...wont forget the band playing in the basement at the Warren house and Creedence Clearwater Revival. You have a wonderful family and will be missed greatly!

“ My brother. A father and grandfather. Shared childhood. Roaming the fields of rural Warren. Digging, building, imagining, playing. Looking for and finding who we were, who we would become. Our world changing around us. Growing up, the 5 of us. He loved working with his hands. We never had a mechanical toy that he hadn't taken apart and put back together. Worked with his hands for a living. Worked hard. His children. The pride of his life. "They take care of me now" he told me at our fathers funeral. His grandchildren, so much love. It will be hard to say goodbye. Rest in Peace Ed. I'll see you soon.

*“ Dad, I am not ready for today, even though I thought I would be. Many tears have already fallen and I have an empty feeling that just keeps growing. I will miss you more than you will ever know. I know you will watch over all of us just as you have always done. Until we see each other again,
All my love,
Sherry*

“ Can remember Eddie as that little kid who always had a twinkle in his eye and a smile that said, "What can I get into next?". So sorry for all of you for losing him. Prayers. Joyce and Vince Orban
