“ Dear Schomberger Family,
I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, we share the pain of losing a loved one in death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5;7), for he is "near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) The hope of seeing our loved ones again under peaceful conditiosn right here on earth are promised to us at John 5;28,29 and Rev. 21;3,4. Please read and find strength in the resurrection promise during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,

“ For Aunt Liz. Theresa, Ed, Mary, Margaret and everyone in the family. I am terribly saddened by the passing of Uncle Ed. I have my own very fond memories of his smile and his laugh....of him leaning against the kitchen sink or sitting at the kitchen table giving out tidbits of wisdom here and there depending on the topic of conversation at the time. Simply put, he was a very good man who was a darn fine uncle! My thoughts and prayers are with you all throughout this rather difficult time. Love, Karen
