“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Edward will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Edward again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Edward seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Dear Annette and Brian, I am so very sorry for the loss of your Dad and truly wish there were words to ease the pain of sorrow. As I looked out at Pikes Peak this morning, I figured your Dad has probably already located a few great places to go fishing and rounding up a fishing party. Never was one to stand still! My thoughts and prayers are with you always. Love, Aunt Barb

“ Dear Soleau Family, We are Friends of Brandon and Derek Haarala. We would like to send our dearest sympathy to the Family & Friends of Ed. I would just like to take a moment to say, Ed you had an amazing relationship and such positive influence on Brandon and Derek. I have never heard anyone speak as highly about a person as Brandon and Derek spoke about you. Your bond with Brandon was extra special; he looks up to you and what you have accomplished in your lifetime. You have taught him how to fish, have patients, and how to be strong. My hope one day is that your Family & Friends do not mourn your death, but celebrate the life you have lived and remember that “Death leaves a heartache that no one can heal, but Love leaves a memory that no one can steal.” Our thoughts and prayers are with you Ms.Soleau, Brandon, Derek, Family & Friends during this tragic time. Please let us know if there is ANYTHING we can do for you. Dearest sympathy, Sara & Ryan

“ With a heavy heart, To me, Ed was more then just a Brother Knight! Whenever I saw him in the lounge or fish fry we offten talked about fishing or hunting or just talk and a smile was always on his face. My Condolences onto the Soleau family and his friends. May he and all our departed souls rest in peace.

“ Linda, family and all who loved Ed We were so sorry to hear of the loss of Ed. He and all of the Soleaue family will be in our prayers. It was a real pleasure to have Ed prepare a special treat of grilled fish at our home last summer after he had taken such great care in cleaning our carpet. We will miss him and his very friendly outlook on life.

“ Linda and Family, Words cannot ease your pain and sorrow. Find solice in the thought that Ed was loved by many. He is at peace, resting in the arms of our Lord. He will be reunited with those he missed. Maybe somewhere in heaven on a deep blue lake he will see Doug, and they can fish again, with no worries, pain or sorrow. Our love, and prayers go out to you and your family.
