“ Christine and Veronica: Just by reading all of the condolences, it has shown me what an outstanding lady Eileen was... God has chosen her to be one of his special Angels to watch over all of her loved ones and prepare them for the wonderful celebration that will behold them when you all meet again. Cherish the memories you had with this blessed beautiful lady. She is always with you. Love and Prayers, Sharon Potts

“ I did not need to know Eileen personally because I have had the privilege of working with Christine. So, I therefore know that Eileen was a caring, loving, spiritually-grounded woman with her focus always on the Lord and His will. May Eileen rest in peace....

“ There's simply no words to say that would justify what an amazing woman Eileen was. I am so blessed to have had her in my life. She's my hero. She's made me a better person. I have so many memories that include her, old and new. She never seemed to run out of love for everyone. She has set such a beautiful example of what a great woman should be. I will miss her dearly, from the simple things like how gorgeous her hands and nails always were, to the long talks we've shared about life. I know she is with the angels and will be watching her soaps, trying to help the Tigers get a win, and winning Wheel of Fortune. I will always love you Gramma. I'm so glad you are at peace. Thank you for everything.
