“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Elaine will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Elaine again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ May the God of comfort be with your family during this time of sorrow.I hope you will find this scripture at 2 Corinthians 1:4 equally encouraging. It says: Jehovah the God of all comfort ,comforts us in all our tribulation even at the death of our love ones.

“ My sincere condolences to the Loeffler family. Elaine and I go back to the early 60's when I first opened my business in Livonia and Elaine, was one of my inspirations to move to Livonia. It has been a wonderful experience being involved with the family and being mentored from time to time by Elaine. Rest In Peace my dear friend.

“*Hearfelt sympathy to the Loeffler family. Mrs. Loeffler will be missed. I find that reading God's word the Holy Bible gives us comfort and a sure hope in the near future. To what did Jesus compare dead Lazarus' condition, and why? Perhaps the clearest insight into the hope that Jesus preached can be gained from what he said and did when his friend Lazarus died. At: (John chapter 11:11) Jesus said to his disciples "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I'am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." So, this verse shows that Jesus compared Lazarus' death state to sleep. In a deep sleep, we are conscious of nothing, which agrees with the Hebrew expression at (Ecclesiastes chapter 9: verse 5) "For the living are conscious that they will die, but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all." Also, in conclusion in (John chapter 5:verse 25) Jesus told Martha Lazarus' sister: I'am the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.....
