“ You all are in our thoughts as you remember your dear Eleanor. Although we did not visit often over the years (Earl is a Minnesota cousin), I remember the kind hospitality we enjoyed with Eleanor and Ken when we were there for a celebration with Gladys and her sister, Mildred and Ed Mathison. Earl and I stayed at the Morris home and Eleanor and Ken treated us to a tour of Detroit (Renaissance Center) dinner at a Greek restaurant and then a drive through the Tunnel from Detroit to Windsor Canada! Also, it was a joy to have the family stop by our home, once long ago in Bertha, MN and a few years ago here in St. Cloud. We ask God's blessings of peace and comfort to surround you. We thank God for the gift of Eleanor Joanne.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Earl and Gayle Mathison*
