“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ It is wonderful that we can share with family about our memories from years past. This was my first opportunity to say goodbye to all of my wonderful aunts who have passed away. Seeing a photo with all of them together, I miss Aunt Helen, Aunt Sophie, Aunt Dorthie and now Aunt Lillian! Lodzia was always so positive. Loved that!

“ Aunt Lillian was the sister with the "flair"! who will forget her latest hair styles and her scarf! She loved my mom and her sisters and made sure we knew that if you were with one you were with all of them. All of my aunts loved Hollywood, movie stars, books, music, politicians especially JFK and of course Detroit and the Tigers! She always wanted to be up on everything and not miss a thing going on on TV, movies, politics or sports. As I grew older and was the photographer for family events my brothers & sister loved to tease me that I was " Aunt Lillian, Lodzia, Eleo.....I took that as a compliment!

“ RIP to my sweet godmother who always had a sense of style - I loved to hear the stories about her as a young girl and turning all the boys heads that is until she met Uncle Richard. The gal with an assortment of nicknames: Lillian, Lodzia, Ello, etc. Her love of baseball, Detroit and music. I'm so glad I got to see her a few weeks back and enjoyed a chocolate candy with her - such a contented smile eating that chocolate! I will never forget you or your poetry - forever in our hearts! Condolences to my cousins.
