

Elizabeth A. Adair

July 29, 1931 - April 27, 2021

Adair, Elizabeth Ann, passed away peacefully on the morning of April 27, 2021, at age 89. Dear wife of the late Malcolm. Cherished mother of Leslie (Jim) Veda, Enrico “Rick” (Zita) Adair and Diane (Chris) McGorey. Loving grandmother of seven and great grandmother of twelve. Liz was born July 29, 1931, in Fairpoint, Ohio; the daughter of Enrico and Lena DelGiudice. Her family moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1941, where she attended Southwestern High School. She married Malcolm Adair in 1954, in a traditional 3-day Italian wedding that Liz enjoyed reminiscing about to family and friends. Liz worked for various employers over the years, including Michigan Bell, Biltmore Florist (the family-owned business) and the company she eventually retired from, Perry Funeral Home. She lived for many years in Southwest Detroit, as well as Dearborn, MI, and Traverse City, MI. She will be remembered for her strong Catholic faith, and her enthusiastic and loving attitude to everything and everyone in her life. Her favorite song was “You Are My Sunshine,” and she lived that sentiment.

“ Liz was a wonderful person! She did all my flowers for my wedding. We would always have a little chat at the All Saints dinners. May God wrap his loving arms around Liz on her journey to heaven. God bless you Mrs Adair. JoAnn (McVey) & Reuben Hernandez

“ I knew Liz and Mail at their Biltmore florist shop in Detroit. They always had something in the refrigerator one of which was lime vodka and 7-Up. to this day I still enjoy that drink. Liz was a friendly person and always seem to have had an upbeat attitude. They gave me part-time employment for many years while in college and then newly married. In my heart I have always thanked him for that especially Liz's positive attitude when times were tough for them and myself. To quote the comedian Bob Hope: "thanks for the memories"

“ Liz was one of the kindest, loving women we had the pleasure to know. She exemplified what a Christian woman should be. We were honored to work along side Liz as well as count her a friend. She was always so humble, sweet, and welcoming to anyone she met...Liz never met a stranger. Our lives were truly blessed in the time we spent with Liz. Her strong faith and love of family encompassed her conversations. She will truly be missed by all who knew her. Our sympathy is extended to her children, grandchildren and friends.

“ A most loving, joy-filled, and generous person. Liz (aka "honey" to us) was such a faith-filled person. She loved her family, her parishes, friends, and community. The loss is great to those mentioned here and yet the gain she now enjoys for eternity helps us deal with her passing. Can you just imagine the greeting Liz received in Heaven? Pat & Genny
