“ Put me down for weddings. The premarital counseling gives you so many opportunities. And you develop a lifelong relationship. Rarely does someone say, I want you to meet the preacher that did dad's funeral, but they're almost always wanting to see the one who married them. Grace and peace, Tim

“ Dear family of Betty, I had the blessing of knowing Betty at the Care Tel rehab home 3 years ago. She became a well needed support to me. In the past years we had built a wonderful relationship on the phone. Oh how I will miss her! She had a great sense of humor, a caring heart, and I know she loved her family. Please find peace in the love she had for you and keep precious memories of her alive. My fond memories will be treasured. God's to all of you!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Along with the sadness and pain of losing a loved one, come many questions. Why do good people die? Job in the Bible asked this question, "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" The answer is yes, because God will have a yearning for the work of his hands. Read Job 14:14,15 in your Bible. We can have the hope of seeing our loved ones again, right here on this earth! Find out how, visit Watchtower.org or ask any of Jehovah's Witnesses. Sincerely

“ I so enjoyed talking with Betty at a gathering of train ladies, and later, talking with her on the phone. Always engaging with a great sense of humor. Both my husband and I will miss her dearly.

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your aunt, sister, mother, and grandmother. Betty was a special lady. Take the good that she shared with everyone and make it your own - in this way she will always be with you.

“ Dear Anne, Tom and Family
Betty will be missed by those whose lives she touched in her special way.
I remember her visits to Chicago and how much she enjoyed spending time with Anne and the “train ladies”. I will miss her visits and the phone calls to her as she chatted with each of us from Detroit and will always remember the good times we shared.
May her memory be eternal. With sympathy

“ My thoughts are with all of you during this very difficult time.
I'll always remember Betty's good humor while trying to understand the garbled conversation of the "train ladies." We'll miss those calls to her.
May she rest in peace.
