“ Aunt Betty was such a sweet and loving lady. You couldn't help but feel happier being around her. Her smile would light up the entire room. She was a very thankful person who appreciated the simple things in life. I remember how much she enjoyed gardening and always wanted to know what I was growing in mine. The smallest things would bless her heart, especially if you simply came over for a visit. We have many fond memories of visiting with her at the lake. We will miss her dearly and consider ourselves fortunate to have known her. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Robert, Lynn and the rest of the family,
With much love,
Roy, Jackie and Matthew Yocom
