“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Rizak family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Elizabeth will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Elizabeth again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Elizabeth seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Liz had a way of touching everyone she met. She defined the Rizak name: sweet, kind, and wonderful. We will miss her dearly.

“ The loss of such a strong, wonderful woman is so very painful. She was beautiful inside and out. I know you will be there to support each other in this time of sadness. Carl , Sara, Jake and I are proud to have had her as a friend. We will especially remember her at Halloween. She was always so very sweet to me and my children at Mark and Linda's gatherings.
