“ I just found out about Betty's passing.
My condolences to her family.
I used to Babysit Betty's & Richard's children, alot, all 7 of them,
they were always good for me.
I was also their paperboy too.
My Dad introduced Richard to the Carpenter Trade.
We lived at the end of the street, next to the Canberra's, Birchwood & Fairlane.
She was a wonderful lady, she came to the Annapolis Hospital to see me, in April 1967 to see me, after emergency surgery.
Very caring woman.

Forever, Prayers, Harry Price & Family

“ My sweet Aunt Betty.
Thank you for always loving my mother Sally, thank you for always loving me. Thank you for everything you did as an outstanding woman. I couldn't be more thankful for you. I appreciate everything you did for my grandma charlottes kids and us. You'd do anything. I love you.
