“ This is from Floyd and Peggy Miller, I have not heard from Betty in a while, I tried her phone number and no answer. Until this moment had not known she had passed away. We are very sad now. Floyd always sheared her angora goats for many years. She would fix us lunch everytime we came to the house. She was a grand lady to us. We will miss her very much. Wish we would have known sooner.

“ My prayers for Betty. My late husband, Otis and I met Betty and Elba in 1985 when my husband did electrical and outside pole work for Elba on there property. We played cards with them and Otis ice fished on the lake. I have received every year a X-mas card from Betty. So sorry for the lost and will remember out times together. My prayers.
