“ My heart is heavy with sadness for all the family, and my spirit rejoices for Aunt Ellen to see her Lord face to face and her beloved Art. I will always treasure the many times I spent with them at Wednesday mass at OLG and other family events. You are all in my heartfelt prayers and wish you comfort knowing she is now at peace. Well done Aunt Ellen, good and faithful servant, enter the Kingdom of God! O Glorious Day!

Ellen and Art are on of our many blessings that came from living across the street from them on North Territorial. They were such a loving family. They lived their faith. Ellen will now be with here beloved Art and with God. Am so sad to see her leave us but happy she is reunited with God.

*Ellen was a wonderful loving, caring, kind beautiful friend and mother. I truly admired her love of family and her great love of her faith! We will truly miss her but she is now with the love of her life and God.

Ellen was so generous and kind - a joy to be with! When she and Art came to our house for dinner - they came laden with food! You'd never know that we were the ones that invited them to dinner! Cakes, vegetables, fruit!

She will be sorely missed.
