“ Dear Lisa, Carrie, and Frankie and families, Steve, McKenzie, and I are so sorry for the loss of your Grandma. She was a very special lady and did so wonderfully all those years nobody ever believed she was her age! We always commented on how beautiful her skin was and how well she took care of it. We are deeply sorry that we couldn't be at her visitation yesterday and service today. We hope you all know that your thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Our love to all of you, Kristen (Komlen), Steve, and McKenzie Pricco

“ Im truly sorry to hear about the lost of a loved one. Coping with death definitely has its challenges. What helps me is reading and meditating on John 5:28,29 which stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." In the near future you will be able to see Emily again. I hope these word provided some comfort.

“ My dad Charlie married Emily and brought her into my life and I have been always happy to have her. Words that come to mind when I think her are: daughter, little sister, wife, mother, grandmother, stepmother, friend, teacher, strong, loving, smiles, courageous, good, admired, reader, respectful, distinguished, elegant, classy, bold, impressive, presence, devoted, and prayerful. She may not have been my biological mother but I will always call her "Mom". I am sad at her loss but happy that she is at peace and in the presence of God. Love and Peace, Stephanie
