“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ I have sweet memories of the fun Kindergartener Emily was when she was in my class. Her smile and laugh would always brighten the day. She was a happy girl :). I am so sorry for your loss. Simply beyond understanding. There is no road map for grief so be patient and hold fast to your wonderful memories. While Emily is no longer here physically she will live on in the hearts of all those she touched. Sending warm thoughts and strength to each of you.
