“ Debbie, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear mom. She was a wonderful lady who was loved by all. I know there is a huge hole in your heart that cannot be filled. Take comfort in knowing that she has gone to be with God. She will never again be in pain or fight for her next breath as she is resting in the arms of God. Seeing my own Mom in such pain that last day of her life and knowing she is not suffering anymore is the only thing that helped me get through the tough times. You shall see her again one day. My prayers are with you and your family during these times. It's been over 2 years since my Mom went home. I still have a very difficult time in my grief for her. I still pick up the phone to call her but then I am remindedshe is not here...she's with God now. LISTEN...shhh...listen...be still and she will come to you and help guide you and comfort you. Every once in a while, I get a little whiff of the smell of funeral flowers ...and I know it's my Mom, she's near... May God comfort you and your family during this difficult time and in the months ahead. She was loved and so are you. Shirley Ramsey

“ We will always treasure the love she gave us. We weren't related by birth, but we always called her Auntie Emma. There was no one more loving, sweeter or more generous than this precious christian woman. The love she showed us will always be in our hearts. Her example will lead us and our families far into the future. Until we meet her again, Love, Wendy, Janna, Dana & John (Schultz)
