“ *My Dear Marilyn and Family;
Words cannot do justice to how deeply saddened I am by this news. My heart is crying for you. Your loss is totally unfair and too difficult to express. Please do not forget your faith at a horrible time as this. Jesus feels your pain and is standing with you. He will give you strength. Just ask him. We are all thinking of you and are standing by to do anything you need. I will pray every night for you and your family. We love and miss you. Please try to take care of yourselves and remember you have each other and God to support you.*

Thinking of you with all my heart;

“ I don't remember ever meeting Eric, but I am sure he was an outstanding young man, being the son of Michael and Marilyn. The Cullen family has suffered so many losses. How cruel life can seem at times. Now he rests in the arms of Our Lord. My deepest sympathy and prayers for Michael and Marilyn, Eric's brothers and all who loved him.
