“ I’m so heartbroken to hear this news. Eric was an amazing person that always made my days brighter. Working with him at Panera was always the best. He was hard working, fun, showed everyone kindness and could always make you laugh. I’m so thankful that our paths have crossed, he was truly one of a kind. I’ll always cherish the memories we’ve made.

“ Lots of great memories from family parties on 4th of July and Thanksgiving, especially when the Thriller video premiered and we watched it at your house. I remember you babysitting the cousins and getting everyone jobs at Pizza Hut—always helping out! Was fun at Jen’s wedding when you reminisced about getting tips as Aunt Linda’s ring bearer at her wedding many years ago. You will be missed!

“ I will miss you so much, Eric, my big brother. We went to so many Lions and Red Wings games, your excitement was infectious. I was actually quite envious that you could still ride rollercoasters as we got older without getting nauseated like i did! Working at Pizza Hut with you taught me what it really means to treat everyone you meet with dignity and respect. Miss you so much, hope your soaring away on a rollercoaster right now. Love you brother.
