“Uncle Eric, I love you so much. I'll never ever forget what a great man you were. I'm gonna miss the way you would pick on me and make me laugh. You were more than an uncle to me you were like a dad . I can't thank you and aunt sandy enough for taking me in. I remember you always used to tell me I was yours and you had the "whoopin papers" to prove it haha. You will forever be in my heart. I love you more than you'll ever know <3
Rest easy! :-*

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Eric will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Eric again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Never are we expecting the phone call I got with the horrible news that Eric was gone. I have just been so sad thinking about your Life being cut so short. I am so lucky to have the Memories of you and Sandy as two young Kids in Jr High. You came to my House almost every night with or without Sandy and just sit and talked with me. Eric what a lucky Man with the Children you had. All six of them are a product of you and Sandies love. May you now Rest in Peace and all your Worries are over. Good bye for now.
