“ Mom. What can I say that hasn't been said? Do I mention again your brilliantly sky blue eyes? Your infectious and raucous laugh? Your love of life? You were a gift from the very beginning...holding, congratulating, encouraging, reprimanding, witnessing, teaching, laughing, sharing and always unconditionally loving. You were supportive. You were never one to criticize final choices, but accept and wonder at them. (Even when you didn't agree.) You could be cold, harsh and unreasonable and you were selfish. But these things taught me to be strong, willful, self-loving and individual, and to not 'give a hoot' about what others thought of me. At the same time, you were vulnerable like a flower bud about to open, creative and so present. This taught me to be sensitive, expressive, respectful and awestruck by the world. Your heart is what took you, not because it was a 'bad' heart (as I heard the social worker say) but because you had a 'magnificent heart' that gave it's all. I love you every day and I will miss you always.

“ Your mom was a terrific lady! Her physical presence will be missed, wherever we were used to seeing her. But her spiritual presence will always be with anyone lucky enough to have known her. If I can help in anyway, let me know. God bless you all.

I was saddened to hear of Eva's passing.
I remember fondly the outrageously fun times my parents spent with Bob and Eva.
I hope you can find some comfort knowing that Eva is remembered so fondly as such a dynamic woman.
Those lives that Eva touched have truly been blessed.

“ Grandma Eva, she was a whirlwind! I feel like she was a Grandmother to me, too. But one role could never define her. My memories of her - of toe rings and ear cuffs, cinnamon rolls, and colored fire in the fire place, french horses, Wild Thing, sea shells, margaritas, and crab legs - when I think back on these memories they come combined with lots of bright colors. She was a very special woman, I'm so glad I was able to know her. She is a reminder to me to enjoy life!

“ Dear Eva, Life here on earth will never be the same without you. Last night was hard, the void I felt without you. You know how crazy we would always get going over old times. Your laugh and antics and all the fun we would have, was surely missed. You touched a lot of people's lives in such a positive way. You are so missed, but never forgotten. I thank God, for loaning you to us, and look forward to being together again forever in our heavenly family. I love you. {just your little brat sister Nancy. Bob and family you are wonderful, and I'm sure this is going to be hard. You are in my thoughts and prayers

“ I did not know Eva as well as I would have liked but the two vacations I spent with her in Florida were wonderful. She was a wonderfully funny woman who treated me with nothing but kindness. She will truly be missed.

“ *Dear Sweet Family of Eva,
Blessed are we to have known the joy of Eva. Her sunny smile, infectious laugh, bluest sky eyes and quirky humor. Anyone who knew her felt the joy that it is to be alive and engaged. All of us will carry that wit and smile safe within our hearts, for that kind of soul surely does not depart, but infuses the air we breathe with the effusion that is love. I do stand by the resting place of body and weep, because my heart will miss that wily lady, and my arms ache with the loss of physicality. But our souls remember, and I laugh out loud at the joy I have had to be so blessed to have known Eva.
Be sure to know dear family, that she remains in our hearts for all of time.
Light and Love,

“ This poem brought me much comfort when my dear grandmother passed on:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.*

Know that the spirit of your darling Eva lives on inside of you. She will always be in your heart and I believe that she will be watching over you until you are joined together again in the summerland. May you find peace inside your grief.

“ Grandmommy, I wanted to thank you for playing such a large role in my life, and to express how sorry I am that you are gone. I never really realized how important you have been to me, yet that does not diminish how glad I am that you were there, or how much of an impact spending time with you has had, whether it be co-enjoying my pancakes or watching Judge Judy or even trying to spell "pharaoh". I will never, ever forget your laugh.

“ Eva: Instead of a condolence, I'm sending a love note.

You are, and always have been, my favorite mother-in-law! You graciously welcomed me into your family (even with my abrupt arrival) and always made my family feel welcome.

I already miss your infectious laugh, sense of adventure, loving care, and sharp wit. I am blessed and my life is richer for having shared some of our lives. I regret the things we didn't do together (bungee jumping, sailing), but am grateful for the time and adventure we did share.

I will always love you...

“ I was so sorry to hear about Eva's death, and at the same time so happy to have known her, even if it wasn't for long or at a very deep level. I'll never forget the great times we had at the theater parties at her house. She will be missed, but never forgotten. Let me know what I can do to help you through this time.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire Moll family. Eva was a true friend and she will leave a big void in our lives. She was always there to help anyone in need. We had some great times together over the years. She was always full of love and laughter. I for one will truly miss her. She will always be remembered in our hearts and prayers.

“ What a great loss. A funny witty Aunt who always had a passion for life, I always remember Aunt Eva laughing and full of life, she always had a smile on her face. Many great childhood memories spent up north. She will be missed. This poem reminded me of her:

Mostly, I Would Like to Be Remembered

*Mostly, I would like to be remembered
As someone who was passionate for life.
The days of unsought ecstasies are numbered,
However long we linger in the light.
I was one who cultivated wonder,
Less of one contented to explain,
Delighted by the promises of hunger,
Enduring for their joy the years of pain.
Gifts I had aplenty: Some I savored,
Others sacrificed for others' needs.
Remember me as someone who was favored,
Despite constraints, to tumble in the leads,
Ocean to what winds I could not be,
Nightrider through what worlds I could not see.*

“ Oh what a spark-plug Eva was! Eva's passing will leave a huge void in our lives; but I can tell you even I with my terrible memory won't forget the AWESOME times we had with B&E. Celeste & I had the priveledge to be Bob & Eva's next door neighbors since 1990. The Molls were the reason we re-built our house,,,there was NO-WAY we were moving away from them. We shared everything with the "Mollski's"...Vacations - Kauai trips, up-north trips, countless meals together -- we never did stop laughing when together. Bob and I just smiled as the girls thought they had the last word in our debates/discussions; we/they knew better.(yuk,yuk,yuk) I could go on and on,,,we will miss the Grand Dame and always smile when thinking of her. Hey Bob, we got your back!! We love the Moll's.

“ As I sat quietly last night, thinking about Eva, I could hear her laugh. That brought so much joy to my heart. She was my mother-in-law for a short while, but she was always a mom to me. She will always be so dear in my memory as she was so dear in my life.

I hope she gets a chance to meet Stan Freberg. "I suppose..."

“ Dear Moll Family,
I'm so sorry that Eva has left us, it's way too early. But she was so full of life. I spent the weekend with her, hubby, & Cindi in Florida and laughed the entire time.

“ I will miss you so much Grandmommie. I love you and feel so blessed that you are such a big part of my life! I will never let your memory get lost; Ella and baby number 2 will know what a wonderful and amazing woman you are. I can't begin to explain the special place you have in my heart and my life. There are secrets that only we share. I feel so lucky to have such a unique relationship with my grandma. Thank you for always supporting me and for being my defender. Thank you also for giving me the best gift of all which is a loving family. I love you so much and you will be missed everyday!
