“ It was a true joy to get to watch Evan swim breaststroke & compete on the PCC Swim Team during the time my daughter Madeline swam with him for PCC. I always enjoyed talking with Evan at church when I ran into him, asking him how swimming and school was going. He was such a pleasure to know and I will truly miss him. Our entire family is extremely saddened by your loss. Praying for peace and comfort, Mike, Michele, Madeline and Samuel Snipes Isaiah 57:1-2.

“ I remember when we would do dry land for swimming and Evan would make everyone laugh and it would get us in more trouble and we would have to do 30 seconds more of flutter kicking. He made everyone laugh and brought joy to the athletes and coaches. We will never forget Evan.

“ Our fond memories of your whole family. The joy when you brought Drew and Evan home, memories of Evan playing in the rocks knowing that Mr Mark would come out and say something. Such a warm caring young child, we cannot begin to tell you how sorry we are to hear of this tragedy. Although you have moved away from us, we will never forget all of the wonderful times we had. Our Love to all of you.

“Evan and his brother entertained the residents of Independence Village of Plymouth at our first "Independence Village Has Talent" show a few years ago. They were both so talented and such a blessing. I remember thinking we would see them on stage one day. Granny LaBelle was delighted with her grandsons! “ I couldn't believe, when I looked out my window on a snowy day soon after my husband died, the young boy shoveling my driveway. I went out and offered to pay him for doing it and he said, "No thank you. I'm doing it for you". Then, on Valentine's Day, I got a card from him. These are but two instances of the kindness and thoughtfulness of Evan. I didn't even know him, but I will always remember him.

God bless you, your brother, Mom and Dad.

“ My daughters swam with Evan for many years in the same Junior Group. They knew how much he enjoyed being a swimmer and the years of dedication. We are saddened to hear of his passing. We will keep your family in our prayers, as he is mourned him through this difficult journey for your family, but also celebrate the small time and many memories you had with him on this Earth. He will now be your angel carrying you through the rest of your lives until you meet up again in Eternity.
