

Evelyne J. Gatt

Evelyne was preceded in death by her siblings, Jane (Joseph) Pace, Joe (Ann) Gatt, and Mike (Marie) Gatt, as well as her loving parents, John and Mary (née Ellul) Gatt.

Evelyne found joy in life's simple pleasures—reading, shopping at J.L.

Hudson's, and expressing her creativity through knitting and crocheting. Her deep faith was a cornerstone of her life, reflected in the hymns she chose for her funeral, including "Jesus, There Is Something About That Name" and "Make Me a Channel of Your Peace."

“ My mom and I got to know Evelyne in rehab at Lakes of Novi. Of course at the time nobody really wanted to be there. Recoveries are tough and being away from home and loved ones is even tougher. Despite all of this, we ended up being friends and had some fun times together ( with our friend Marion too). I guess it shows its never too late to make new friends. Evelyne was a friend that will always have a piece of our hearts. We already miss her. Rest in peace, dear sweet Evelyne. Love Ginger (& Pat)

“ Evelyne was a dear friend and a wonderful, gracious person. I will miss her in so many ways. I am grateful for the many laughs and smiles we had along the way. I will always think of her when I have a Vernor's Ginger Ale or the squash soup at Panera. My condolences go out to the family.

“ Evelyn was a new friend to me & my daughter, because both, Evelyn & I , landed at the same rehab facility! Poor Evelyn due to a recent hip fracture! The two of us along with our dear friend, Marion, had lunch & dinner together every day! Evelyn was such a sweetheart that so many of the staff cherished her! Of course it helped that she always had sweet treats for them ( mostly Werthers candies)! Yes, dear Evelyn will surely be missed!
