“ *Flo was a great and friendly neighbor. We met as she was waling her dog, Ginger. We had many sidewalk conversations, talking about everything under the sun. We talked about dogs, our homes on the lake, teaching, nursing, politics, just about everything imaginable. During college football she always had her beloved Michigan State flag in her front window. I will miss her. My deepest condolences and sympathies to her sons, daughters-in-law and her beloved grandchildren. Flo will be missed here in her neighborhood and in the hearts of her family.
God Bless you all.*
