“ I reconnected with Fran at my Mom's 90th birthday party in 2005. We had such a nice visit. Fran's daughter, Mary Francis, and I grew up together and I have fond memories of going to their home, being involved in girl scouts with them and church and school activities. It is so difficult to lose a Mom - my condolences to the family, who I have in my thoughts and prayers. Susan Mather Lind, Rio Rancho, New Mexico

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear family: I would like to offer my deepest condolence to you on the loss of your mother. Although I did not personally know Frances, I am a close friend of David and Susan and I know from knowing them what a blessed and beloved person she must have been. My prayers are with your family always, not just today, but everytime your hearts miss Frances, know that our Lord collects your tears. May the Peace of God be with you until your Joy can find purchase in your lives again. With Love, Donna

“ George Ann, Mary Frances, and David---We were so sorry to read of the death of your mom. She was such a lovely person and one of my favorites in the Taylor family. I know George will be so happy to have her join him and they can again do crosswords and play cards together. I hope she didn't have a prolonged illness but went peacefully on her way. It's a shame we didn't have our Taylor reunions anymore to keep us in touch but they were fun in the past. Please accept our deepest sympathy and we will be thinking about all of you this weekend. Fondly, Sukey & Lynn

“ Frances, you will always be in my heart. It was a true blessing and honor to have known you and George. We had a lot of fun and laughs planning your special parties at the lake. Let George know that I think of him and you often when I put on earrings. He said a woman is never completely dressed without her earrings. You were so gracious to loan me a pair of yours, when George insisted. Thank you for your loyalty and especially your unconditional friendship. I will sincerely miss you!
