“ Thank you all for the kind words that you have all expressed about my dad! It's been almost 6 weeks since his passing and I can not say it has been an easy road to travel without my dad. There has been many times that I've wanted to talk to him in person or over the phone and have had to stop myself. I am thankful that he did not suffer and I know that he is in a wonderful place now. He's probably helping God with his gardening.

“ I am unable to make the trip from Kansas City but will have all of you in my thoughts and prayers. Frank was a great role model, a great Uncle and Godfather who I'll always remember for three very distinct and different things 1)Watching Uncle Frank and my dad make a Banana Cream Pie disappear 2) Helping us terrorize my brother Bryan when visiting by making "Pete" disappear and 3)Introducing me to the greatness of Home Brewing!
