“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. Although I have had the pleasure to know Frank for a short time, I enjoyed every minute of knowing him. We shared lots of laughs related to this wonderful automotive business that we toiled together in. His wisdom and friendship will be missed. May God Bless him and his family.

“ Betty- It's Sunday morning & we are thinking about you & your family as you prepare for Frank's funeral. We will be uniting ourselves spiritually with all of you as we go to Mass this morning & will continue to do that, esp. on Tuesday morning. " Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted." That is our prayer for you. Mary & Harold S.

“ Frank was a good decent man, who gave profound advice to me. He & Betty shared great times with us usually during Carnival down here. We will sorely miss him, words at this time are inadequate. He made me laugh and I hope I did the same for him! Too dear Betty and their children we express our deepest condolences. They know this already, but in our home there will always be a welcome out for the Cespinos!

“ To My Precious Jennifer and family--I am so sorry for your loss. This is one of the most painful times in life. I lost my Daddy 11 years ago this year. There is still not a day that goes by that I don't think about him. Some days are funny and some days are sad but his memory is still very strong inside of me. People always say that time heals the pain of death and for a long time I thought they were wrong. I don't think you ever heal completely but you become able to deal with it easier. I always enjoyed the time that I spent with your family and Betty I will take good care of Jennifer. I consider her my family and I love her dearly. I am thankful that God brought her into my life. If there is anything that any of you need, please let me know. I pray that God will put his hand on you to give comfort in the next several weeks to come. If every child had the relationship that Jennifer has with her parents, this world would be such a better place. With my deepest sympathy and love, Dee Ann

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Frank will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Frank again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Frank seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ My dear friend Jennifer, I am so very sorry for your loss. The words I speak will not heal your pain or fill you "emptiness" you and your family have however please know my family and I are send uplifting prayers your way, He isnt sick anymore Jen and he so peaceful now. He will be your and your family's guardian angel! Always know I have lots of time, if you need to call please dont hesitate. I for one, know personally, this will take time and as you journey through this transition things will get easier to understand and healing will begin. With lots of love my friend... “ There a e no words to discribe this empty feeling now that Frank is no longer here with us on earth (he is in a better place with Aunt Iren and Uncle Frank). Being a diabetic for over 50 yeras is a ruff road to take. I tought of Frank often when i had to give my self heprin inj I would wonder how Frank did this day in and day out sometimes inj him self more the once a day. He never complained or at least not to me. Frank was very fortunate to be married to a wonderful nurse. If it wasn't for you Betty God only knows what would have happen to Frank when his sugars went out of controll.You were always there for him . I hope in my life time they found a cure for this terrible terrible disease. My deepest condolences to Betty, Jennifer,Domonick and Arlene. I will miss my very dear cousin . Love Georgette
