“ Dear Jenn, Sarah And Emily, We are so shocked, and our hearts and prayers go out to you. He was such a wonderful man and great friend. We had a great time in DC last year. He wanted to touch the Washington Monument - and he did it. Our Homecoming trips were great, and all the people at the "after parties" just loved to talk with him. We loved to talk about the building trade, and he was so proud to show me what he was doing. I still can't forget about him talking about the bananas needing "speckles". He loved Cindy, you girls, and your kids so much.

“ Jennifer, Sarah, Emily, I'm so sad to hear about your father's passing. He was a wonderful man and I really enjoyed seeing him at my brother's wedding. Take heart, in that your father enriched many people's lives. Know that he will be rewarded in heaven. You girls have been through so much. Take comfort in your own families and the Lord.

“ This is such a sad shock. You all been in our thoughts as you cope with this loss. I know Frank left a great legacy in his family and it so sad that he will not get to spend the time he wanted to with his grandchildren. I hope you will find comfort in your memories of what a great father and grandfather he was.

“ I can still picture him on the sideline at soccer games and mowing the yard before we took off on our bikes. As we grieve our loss, may we celebrate his life. He is united, again, with Mrs. Howland...such a beautiful picture in my mind. May you cherish your memories. The Terakedis Family is here if you need anything...we want to help in any way we can as you all endure this time. HUGS.
