“ My cousin Frank used to call me Aunt Jemima (He said ANGEMIMA) when I was a chubby teenager. I credit him for getting me into the fitness business because after being chided as a youngster, I decided not to live up to that nickname! I will always remember him for his ability to tell stories in such a comical way! He was always laughing and making everyone around him laugh. He was always a lot of fun at parties.

My husband Dave and I enjoyed his Polish cooking! He made the best kapusta (sauerkraut) ever!

We will miss you our dearest cousin.

“ Even though I never got to see my Uncle Frank very much due to the fact I lived in Texas. I will always remember my Uncle Frank as being a jokester and always smiling. I love you Uncle Frank and I’m going to miss you

“ I have a lot of good memories of Frank. He should have been a standup comedian. I can remember one time when he kept rolling out the one liners with a straight face and he had me in tears of laughter. I didn’t get to see him much once I left Detroit but on return trips he was always willing to host and cook pierogis. You never realize how much family means until they are gone

“ I have so many good memories growing up of going to family get togethers at my uncle Frank's. Who could forget his loud contagious laugh 😊. My first and only experience of trains was riding on one with my dad and uncle Frank. I can still remember crying when uncle Frank made the whistle blow cause it was so loud. ..but the cookies he gave me helped with the experience lol. I have fond memories of camping in Ludington and seeing my uncle Frank and aunt lynel. He was a funny person to be around. He could sure make you laugh. My uncle Frank will be missed and even though I had not seen him in several years (since grandma rudzinski's funeral) I will always remember the fun get togethers we had. My prayers go out to everyone who is dealing with this loss. May God bless you 🙏
