“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Frederick will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Frederick again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Frederick seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Trish, Reading these messages must make you heart swell with so much pride knowing how deeply loved Fred was and how many lives he touched in such a positive way. Wow, to be held in such high regard is a true testament to a life very well lived. God owed Fred a rest from his bodily pain and holds him in his arms until you have a chance to hold him again. Love, Betty

“ Dear Patty, Jessica, and Chris; Both Bill and I hold you closely in our thoughts and prayers. What a wonderful, wonderful man. We are so sorry to hear of his struggles over the past few years. We know he is now relieved of those challenges and in the arms of his Father. May the years of memories sustain and bless each of you as you make this journey now without his daily presence. Love to each of you....bill and barb

“ I have no words to describe our families loss. I know God has a plan for us all. Someday we will all be together again. Until that day, I intend to remind everyone I come in contact with to treasure every moment of every day. Fred died the way he lived, with quiet grace, faith and dignity. May God Smile on us all and hold us closely, may we all find joy and peace.

“ Dear Patty, Jesse, Chris and Family, Myself and the entire Eichbauer family are so very sad to hear this news. As a second cousin to the fabulous Fagner Family, I was always so happy at the times we would all get together. Patty, my Mom (Sally) and Dad (Jim) thought you and Fred were so fabulous.. My mother always spoke so highly and loved you both.. I can only imagine the beautiful, loving memories you have with the fabulous relationship/marriage you had with Fred that also produced two beautiful kids. Who are now married. Wow....The legacy and the beautiful life of Fred will always, always go on....When I told my Joe the news he said you mean Fred from Ann Arbor that I met and spoke to at his Dad's memorial,, I said Yes,, He said what a great guy, I have his business card that he gave me...I was so happy to see him that day and now this news... My heart goes out to you all...Please know that we love you all and wish you peace in your hearts.....Love, Emily.....

“ Dear Patty, We are very saddened to hear of Fred's passing. He fought a good fight. We will always remember him as a kind and gentle man, and a good father. Patty, your marriage to Fred was inspiring. And I cannot imagine two better people to carry on his legacy than Jesse and Chris.

“ I was fortunate to get to know Fred through my best friend, his sister, Amy and was along to celebrate his 60th birthday in Chicago. What a gentle spirit in a rough world! A very kind and compassionate individual. He was fortunate to have such a beautiful family to surround him on his quest thru this life and his journey to the other side. Indeed it was a pleasure to know him.

“ Dear Patty: I remember like it was yesterday how you and Fred were the "glue" that holds love in a relationship together. Such a tender young love that lasted a much too short of a life time together. May you and your family find strength and comfort in one another and the courage to move through your loss knowing that you have over 40 years of wonderful memories. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. May you find peace in knowing that Fred gave life his all and now he is in the hands of God. With sympathy. Maggie

“ To all the Fragner family, We are all so very sad at Fred’s passing. You all have been in our thoughts and prayers these past months. Fred was such a wonderful, outgoing, loving, and good man; we are truly blessed by knowing him. Thinking back on our Torch Lake tradition, sharing family fun has been part of the most important times in our lives. We will all miss Fred so much, but will always see him in all the people who love him, and know that he is in the hands of our Lord where we will see him again. The example of his life and the way he loved people has become part of us. We send our love to you.

“ Dear Patty and Family, We send all of you our deepest sympathy. We will miss our Fred so much. He was a wonderful friend, a devoted husband and such a proud father. We so loved being with him. He was always in a good mood, always glad to see us, always generous. We’ll treasure our memories always. May God give you comfort and strength, and may your memories of Fred sustain you. All our love, Brian and Dawn

“ Our hearts are filled with such sadness at the loss of Fred, but filled with the joy of knowing he is at peace with the Lord. He was such a kind and thoughtful man and a wonderful father. We are so grateful to Fred for sharing his family and home with our son. Brian was so lucky to have such a great friend in Fred, who was such a strong example of a man and father for him to emulate. Thanks Fred!
