“ In seminar she would always volunteer and gather us to bring supplies and plan for the seminar parties. I always bragged about how our seminar was the best and it was largely because of Gabby. I don't remember having a seminar party after she wasn't there to plan one.

“ *I think the strongest memories I have of Gabi are of her amazingly dry humor. She had perfect deadpan, and could probably out sass most of the people I knew. I think it was one of her best qualities, because it was completely and totally *her*. In all of the time I spent with her in High school, she was never afraid of being honest with others, and was unashamedly herself. I think on memories of her fondly, and I'm grateful to have known her in school. Much love to your family. - Addison "Devvyn" Fites*

“ When we were a lot younger, Gabi and I were in Kensington Park I believe, and we were walking with Tita Candy Catapang. I turned to Gabi and exclaimed, "Can you believe Tita Candy is only fifty?" and she yelled, with her mouth wide open, "What?? I thought she was like twenty!" Gabi looked at Tita Candy and said, "Wow I can't believe you're only fifty oh my god!" So not only does this highlight how Filipinas age beautifully, but also shows my memory of her personality - bright, enthusiastic, honest, outgoing... She was younger than me and I wanted to be like that, wanted her personality, style, and smile. Prayers and love to Tita Rosie and all of the friends and family Gabi left behind.
