“ Janice,

I've been thinking about you on your departed sister's b-day. Gayle was such an encouragement to me when I was a newly-wed college student still trying to figure life out. We had many deep discussions on your old front porch. Decades later we reconnected through regular e-mails and shared many of the same values.

The day of her memorial service many churches had to cancel their services due to snow here in Hillsdale. I still regret that I was unable to get there to officiate at her service as she had requested. I considered it a great honor even though we had not seen each other in several years.

Today I asked our Lord to bless you and all of Gayle's loved ones with His comfort as you no doubt reflected on her memory today.

Blessings to you and yours,

Pastor Les Smith

Auntie Gayley, no other person can compare. She could make me laugh even in hard times. We'd stay on the phone for hours, some times not even talking. I'll miss that for sure.

We are snowed in again in Hillsdale for the first time since the day of Gayle's funeral, which prevented me from officiating at it. Last night's snow reminded me of that missed opportunity. When I was a struggling college student over 40 yrs. ago, I did sales work on the side for some income. Gayle was my most loyal customer. I think she bought my products just so I would come over to her mom's house to visit. It was a great encouragement to me and we had a lot of laughs together talking about the old days when Janis and I were in the Warrendale UB youth group. Gayle always made me feel like I could be successful at whatever I tried. She was like a big sister to me in that way. In recent years we reconnected via e-mail and renewed our friendship. What a blessing Gayle was to me.
